

Parents as Partners

In order to have a strong, active Girl Scout program for your daughter, it is necessary that parents/guardians understand and support the troop. Please take a few moments to review the ways YOU can assist with the troop and mark how you plan to support your daughter's Girl Scout experience.

I am willing to help by:

- Serve as the refreshment coordinator. Will contact other parents and coordinate snacks for troop meetings/outings.
- Prepare and/or serving snack during meeting time.
- Attend troop meetings and assist where needed.
- Assist with paperwork by handling girl/adult registrations, permission slips and other record keeping.
- Help to transport girls to events or field trips. (Must be a registered adult Girl Scout member, over the age of 21 years old and have a completed Driver and Vehicle Information form on file with troop.)
- Facilitate a workshop such as a craft, recipe or ability. (Topic:_____)
- Assist the troop volunteer(s) with planning and program opportunities.
- Serve as a telephone/email contact to inform parents with changes in meetings, reminders of upcoming events and emergencies of a girl in the troop (must follow council procedures)

I am willing to take required courses and help in one of the following capacities as needed:

- First Aid/CPR (take American Red Cross or other GSUSA recognized certification and accompany the troop on field trips.
- Assistant Leader/Advisor: take volunteer training
- Troop Camper: take council-sponsored outdoor training courses and help plan/carry out troop camping events.
- Troop Product Sale Chair: attend council sponsored training to manage the troop's Fall Product and/or Cookie Sale program.

Other ways I would be willing to help_____

All troop committee members should be registered as Girl Scout adults to receive activity accident insurance benefits.
